Straight Talk IX October 1 2011

It's late Friday evening as I wind up my final week of preparation for my Vistage event on Tuesday, October 4th. I'm excited about the event. Mary Hoffman is assisting from Vistage, and I've got 30 solid RSVPs (originally 35, but 2 rescheduled, 1 isn't ready, 1 is selling his business and closing that day and will be in the group if it doesn't sell, and I disqualified one who registered from robo email). I've got nine appointments set for next week so far, with four on Monday that I think are ready to sign up prior to the meeting on Tuesday...and then to help recruit during the event. Two folks who couldn't attend the meeting are in those nine appointments, too. I've passed out the book, 5: Where Will You Be Five Years from Today?: Dan Zadra, to all attendees. It will be a good week. I'm not sure, but I think several of you may also have your meetings this week. Good luck to all of you! Here's an interesting personal ad...written, I think, by Artie. All the best. Happy weekend. Jay

Subject: Best singles ad ever

The following was in The Atlanta Journal. This has got to be one of the best "singles ads" ever:

"SINGLE BLACK FEMALE seeks male companionship, ethnicity unimportant. I'm a very good looking girl who LOVES to play. I love long walks in the woods, riding in your pickup truck, hunting, camping and fishing trips, cozy winter nights lying by the fire. Candlelight dinners will have me eating out of your hand. Rub me the right way and watch me respond. I'll be at the front door when you get home from work, wearing only what nature gave me. Kiss me and I'm yours. Call (404) 875-6420 and ask for Daisy."

Over 15,000 men found themselves talking to the Atlanta Humane Society about an 8-week old black Labrador retriever. Men are so easy.
